Purpose of the Transaction

The transaction falls within the new strategic lines announced to the public on 5 February 2019 and is in full harmony with the activities of non-core assets disposal that started in November 2018 and continued with the new industrial plan 2019-2021 currently under development.

Alessandro Giglio, Chairman and CEO of Giglio Group, declared: "For our part, the baton is passing from the pioneer of multimedia to a global player who follows a very lucid and ambitious plan to join the media and digital sectors. This is not a goodbye to the media world for us, but the end of a traditional model.

Today, we give the green light to the Group's focus on the e-commerce: we have been investing strategically on the Chinese market for some time, bearing in mind that China accounts for 83% of global e-commerce sales.

Our goal for the following 5 years is to expand our presence in China, both as far as deals with new brands and number of marketplaces are concerned. The expected growth of our portfolio of brands and marketplaces' partnerships in China gives us reason to hope to attain 30% of the Group's total revenues from the Chinese market in the next 5 years".
